Mayor's Moment

It seems there's always something to fix out on the farm: whether it's the massive damage from the recent flooding, the cows getting out, the pivots not working, there's always something. It's nice to have the town running smoothly and in the black. Town Council passed the annual budget and our projected revenue for the coming year will make it so we can get a few projects done that we have been putting off because we didn't have enough money. I'm glad we have some new businesses in town to generate this revenue and help us fix some things in town. With Zion Weeping Buffalo opening, that'll help even more. Thanks to our good business owners who are finding success in Virgin as they follow their dreams. We want all citizens to know we're here to help you follow your dreams too!
